WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

WAR. DEPT., OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, WASHINGTON, August 11, 1876.
For the South Atlantic, Gulf States and Tennessee, higher barometer, southerly to easterly winds, and nearly stationary temperature, and frequent thunderstorms.

WE WILL, on the first of September, issue our usual annual review of the cotton trade of the year, together with a resume of the general market for the year. The edition of the APPEAL of that date will be unusually large, offering facilities for advertisers such as in other years they have not hesitated to avail themselves of. In order to facilitate us in our efforts to cater for the public acceptably, and creditably to ourselves, we remind our friends thus early and solicit a continuance of the generous support which for thirty-six years the people of Memphis have extended to the APPEAL. Orders for papers and advertisements will be received up to the last day of this month at our counter-reading-room.

THERE is more railroad work going on in California at this time than in any other State in the Union.

THE Holy Springs, South says that Judge J. A. Orr, late Republican judge, has telegraphed to Colonel Mulrow, Democratic nominee for congress in the first district, pledging him his hearty support.

THE following Democratic congressional nominations were made in Ohio yesterday: Third district—John A.
Savage, by acclamation; eighth district—George Arthur, of Clark county; thirteenth district—William W. Poston, Athens county.

THE "regular" R. de la Cruz, of Alabama, put a State ticket in the field yesterday, in opposition to the "irregulars," who challenged the Democrats with a ticket some time ago. In this case, certainly,
"the more the merrier."

THE greatest southern outrage yet perpetrated is that by the Democrats of Alabama. Thirty-five thousand majority is more than Butler, Martin and Logan can stand. We ought to have another investigation after the style of that of Mississippi.

UNDER the head "Letters from the People" our readers will find a communication indicating the Radical party worthy more than usual attention. It is from the pen of a distinguished lawyer, and is the strongest statement of our grievances that we have yet seen on paper.

THE congressional separation of Stephen A. Douglas, Jr., son of Senator Douglas, has been nipped in the bud.
He was a candidate for nomination by the Republican convention of the fifth North Carolina district, but was defeated by one Boyd. He, too, has been made a Presidential elector.

IN the house, yesterday, a resolution was adopted declaring that Isiah Hanson, chief of the bureau of construction and repairs of the navy department, is unworthy and incompetent to hold that position, and that owing to the negligence of the secretary of the navy, the government had been swindled out of three thousand dollars by Tilton, Wheelwright & Co.

THE August (Ga.) Constitutionalist states that the riotous of the jury in the Hamburg (S. C.) case is a refuge from justice, there being an indictment against him in Richmond county, Geo-gia, for the same crime. The Constitutionalist also says the statement of the witnesses before the coroner and jury were wild, contradictory and malicious as they could possibly be, and no man was safe whose name only was known to the party testifying.

MR. NORDHOFF writes from Washington to the New York Herald: "As some of the friends of the Herald are about to flee suspicion on Bluff Wilson, it is proper to say of him that he is a very able, honorable, frank and courageous man, who did his duty as soldier of the treasury, without fear or favor, and with very great ability managing many complicated affairs, amid vexat-ious hindrances, with uncommon skill and effect."

IN the senate yesterday the amendment of the house of representatives to the resolution to print four thousand copies of the report of the committee on the subject of the Mississippi river, was agreed to and the resolution passed. Mr. Allison called up the conference report on the river and harbor appropriation bill, and in answer to the question of Senator Edmunds, said that the bill was agreed upon by five million dollars. The report of the conference committee was agreed to; yes, 38; nay, 10. Senators Boutwell, Cockrell, Cockrell, Dawkins, Eaton, McCreery, Morrell, Wadsworth, Wallace and Whyte, voted in the negative. Senator Edmunds, who voted in the negative, changed his vote to affirmative just before the vote was announced, and then entered a motion to reconsider. The motion was agreed to, and the bill was passed. The senate then resumed the consideration of unfinished business, bringing a resolution to print ten thousand extra copies of the message of the President and accompanying documents in regard to the recent difficulty at Hamburg, South Carolina. Senator Sherman then resumed his argument and spoke at much length, reviewing the letters of Tilden and Hendricks, and denouncing the Democratic party. He was responded to by Senator McDonald, who made one of the best speeches of the session, defending Tilden and Hendricks, the Democracy and the people of the south. Pending discussion, Senator Windom called up the house bill to provide temporarily for the expenditures of the government, which was passed. The senate then went into executive session, and soon afterward adjourned.

THE TURKS AND SERVANS.

The Porte Willing to Negotiate for Peace posed to Intervene, but is Opposed to an Armistice.

The Servians Refuse all Offers of Mediation, and will not Treat for Peace until the Turks are under the Walls of Belgrade.

PARIS, August 10.—An article by John F. Milne, to whom is invested the supervision of the English correspondence of the Journal des De-bats, published in that journal today, insists upon the necessity of prompt intervention to put a stop to the atrocities of the Turks. He says that for England to interfere, being the avowed protectress of Turkey, is inevitably considered to be responsible for the conduct of the Turks.
A special to the Le Temps, from Vienna, says that the Austrian Serbian premier, is preparing to be sent to the powers giving an account of the atrocities committed by the Turkish Ser-vians, and may serve equally to pave the way for mediation or for justifying the war to the death.

How far the efforts to persuade Europe that the christian populations of the empire are on the side of the government, will be successful it is hardly the case to say. I can, however, confidently bear witness that so far in Constantinople they have been induced to believe that we were amenable to four or five days ago by an official statement that a petition had been drawn up and signed by a number of Greeks who had volunteered for the army, and were anxious to serve their loyal sovereign. The petition was signed, and ought to have been satisfying. The skeptical public, however, only laughed and asked who were the signers. Some of the leading Greeks, however, among the wealthiest and most intelligent men of the capital, felt themselves aggrieved at the suggestion of a treason so base, and drew up a formal protest against the same.

offensive movement of the Turks is probable.

LONDON, August 10.—A special to the daily News, from Trebinj, says that the Montenegrins have retired, some toward Padignia, and some toward Banjal, and that the Montenegrins have made an excursion to the frontier unmolested. An offensive movement of the Turks is
probable.
